The Right Way to Hold the Pencil

1. Teach “duck talk” with the thumb and pointer finger. Tell the children to put the pencil in the duck’s mouth. That’s how we hold a pencil in kindergarten!

2. Ask the children who are still developing efficient grip to hold a half a tissue, a cotton ball, or even a marble under two fingers. This frees the pencil holding fingers to do their job. Place the child’s fingers on the pencil.

• Fluency Checklist •

Where are you with your understanding?

4

I could understand it and apply it in creative ways.

2

I almost know it. But I could use a little more practice.

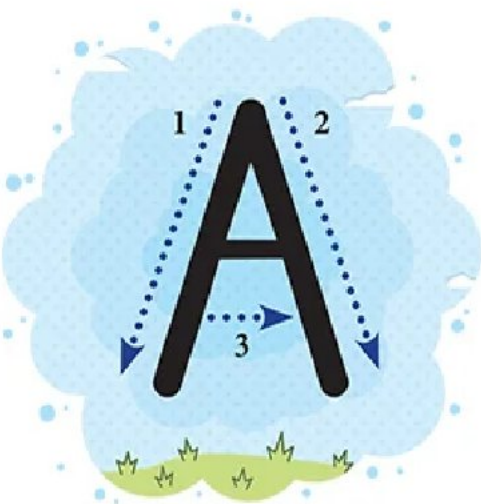

3

I get it! I am right where I am supposed to be.

1

I am trying. But I just do not quite get it well.

MY FIRST LETTER PLEASE

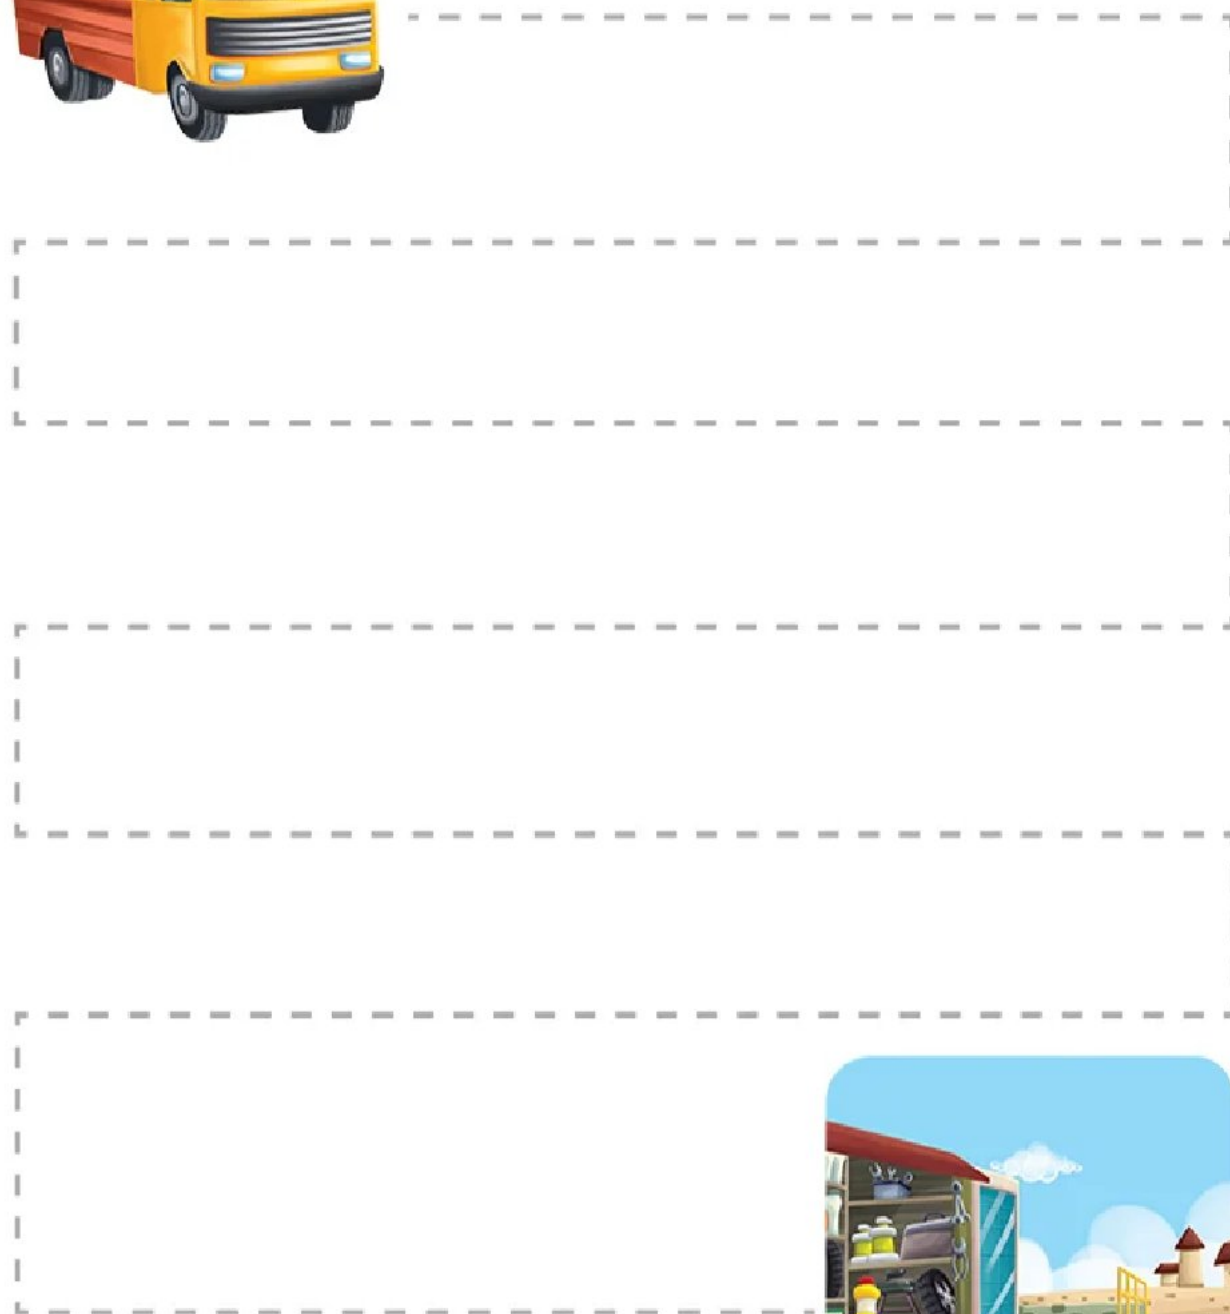

__NT

Tracing practice lines for the capital letter A. The first row contains five dashed 'A's for tracing, followed by several rows of empty lines for independent writing practice.

Show That You Know

Trace upon the combination of sleeping and standing lines.
Help the truck to reach the warehouse.

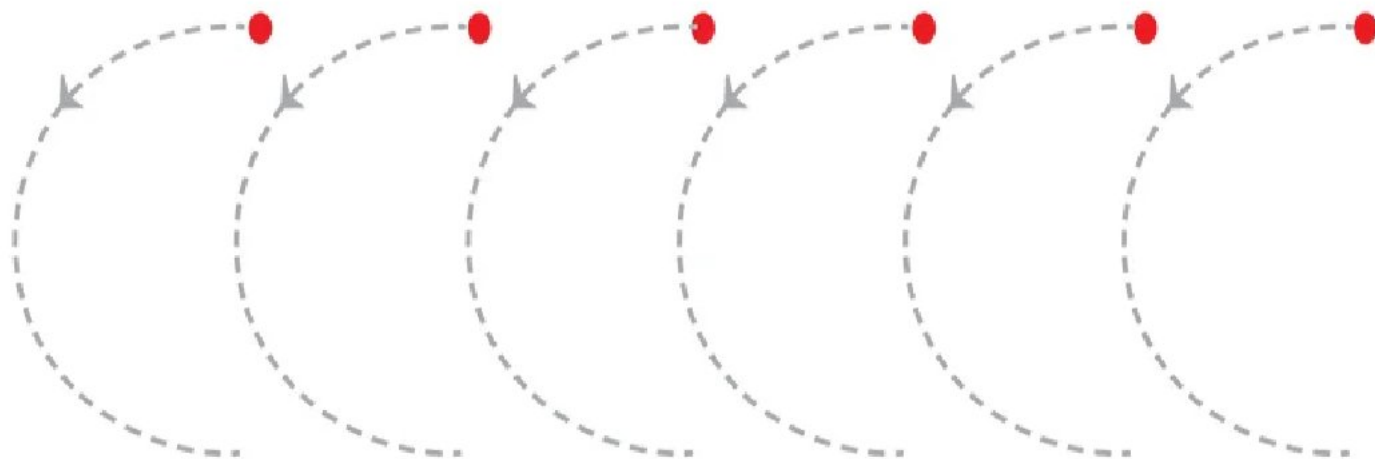

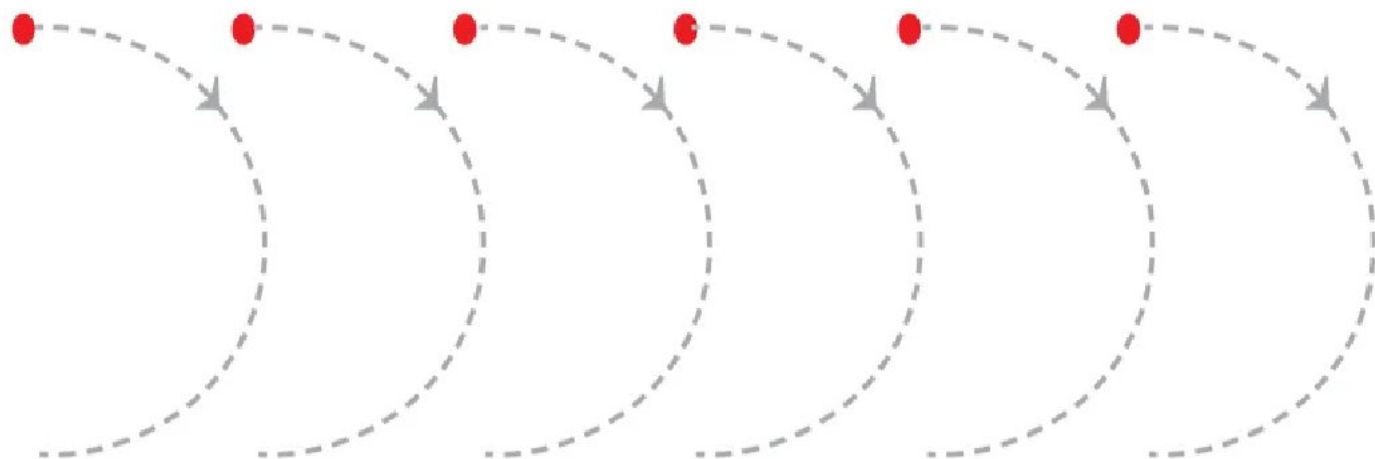

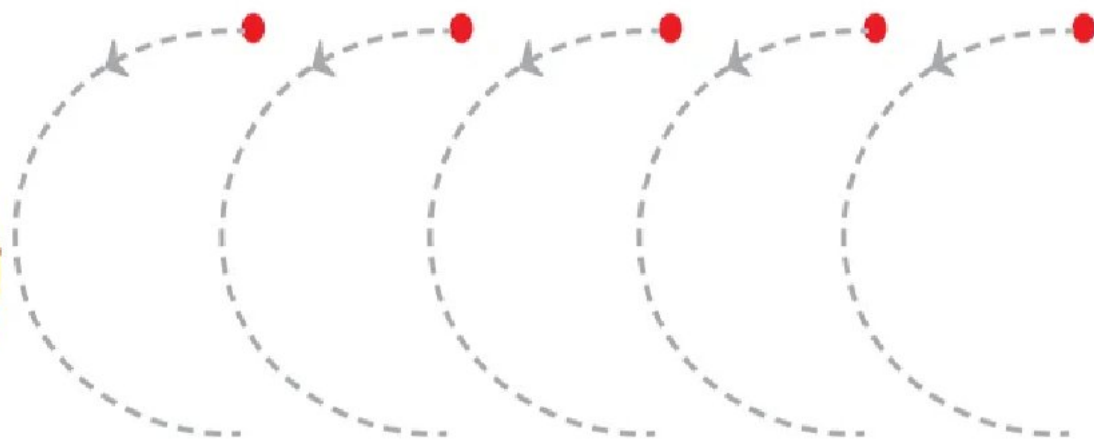

Sweet Sleeping Lines

Trace the dotted lines from left to right. Match the things that go together.

Crazy Curved Lines

Join Giggles in practising some curves. Start from the dot. Move ahead in the direction of the arrow head.

Smart Standing Lines

Trace the dotted standing lines from top to bottom. Join the fun to see how the leaves fall straight on the ground.

Noisy Slanting Lines

Giggles enjoys listening to the pitter – patter of the raindrops. Use blue crayon to trace upon the dotted lines from top to bottom.

Playful Zigzag Lines

Trace upon the zigzag lines starting from the left. Climb up and down the hills with Giggles.

Show That You Know

Meet your friends – rain, hail, snow and lightening. Trace their paths from top to bottom.

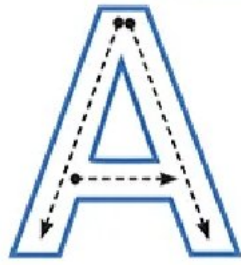

What goes up when rain pours down?
UMBRELLA.
